ACME Holdings Ltd.

Quarterly Operations Report

Prepared by the Finance Department - Q3 2026

This quarterly report summarises the operational results of the regional offices. Revenue grew steadily across all divisions, while operating costs remained within the approved budget for the third consecutive quarter.

Key highlights

- Revenue up 12% year over year
- Customer satisfaction score of 4.6 / 5
- Invoice: INV-2026-0042 total $18,450.00

The board approved the expansion plan for two new branch offices. Hiring for both locations will begin next month, and the IT team will roll out the new document management system to all staff before the end of the year.

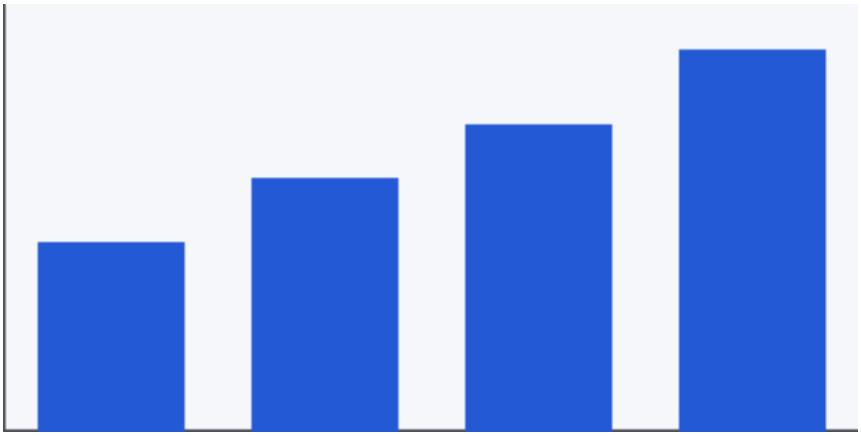

Figure 1: Revenue by quarter

Terms and Conditions

1. Payment is due within 30 days of the invoice date. Late payments may incur a fee as described in the master services agreement signed by both parties.
2. Payment is due within 30 days of the invoice date. Late payments may incur a fee as described in the master services agreement signed by both parties.
3. Payment is due within 30 days of the invoice date. Late payments may incur a fee as described in the master services agreement signed by both parties.
4. Payment is due within 30 days of the invoice date. Late payments may incur a fee as described in the master services agreement signed by both parties.
5. Payment is due within 30 days of the invoice date. Late payments may incur a fee as described in the master services agreement signed by both parties.
6. Payment is due within 30 days of the invoice date. Late payments may incur a fee as described in the master services agreement signed by both parties.
7. Payment is due within 30 days of the invoice date. Late payments may incur a fee as described in the master services agreement signed by both parties.
8. Payment is due within 30 days of the invoice date. Late payments may incur a fee as described in the master services agreement signed by both parties.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Appendix A - Landscape page

This page is landscape to test page sizes and rotation.